

AMERICAN SPECTACLE

Educational Presentation

Election Day 1844 (detail), 1913, Edward Lamson Henry, American, 1841–1919; oil on canvas. Nancy and Sean Cotton Collection.

This educational resource was developed by the DIA Education Programs team in collaboration with social studies curriculum specialists representing the Michigan Department of Education, Genesee Intermediate School District, Wayne RESA, Eastpointe Community Schools, and Southfield Public Schools.

This exhibition is organized by the Detroit Institute of Arts and made possible by the Nancy and Sean Cotton Collection. This is one in a series of American art exhibitions created through a multi-year, multi-institutional partnership formed by the Detroit Institute of Arts as part of the Art Bridges + Terra Foundation Initiative. Generous support is provided by the Richard and Jane Manoogian Foundation.
